● ● ● ● INDUSTRY RANKINGS

A LEADING BUSINESS DESTINATION

York Region ranks among the top 10 large municipalities in Canada for economic growth and development in a number of key performance indicators including top employers, job creation, and population growth.

York Region is the third largest business community in Ontario. It is home to 1.2 million residents, 54,000 businesses, and 654,000 jobs with an average of more than 14,700 new jobs created every year.

Two of the three Greater Toronto Area 'employment mega-zones' are in York Region with a high concentration of companies in sectors such as ICT, financial services, engineering, building and construction, warehousing and logistics, and manufacturing.

In the next 20 years York Region is expected to grow to 1.8 million residents and 900,000 jobs. This is supported by exciting and developing urban growth centres – Markham Centre, Vaughan Metropolitan Centre (VMC), Richmond Hill Centre, and Newmarket Centre. These high density urban centres total 1,700 acres of mixed-use development area planned for major office employers needing access to talent, transit, and amenities.

Businesses in York Region achieve high levels of economic performance with leading positions in international and national top company indexes such as the Fortune 500, Profit 500: Canada's Fastest-Growing Companies, FP500: Largest Corporations in Canada, Top ICT Companies, Top R&D Spenders, and others.
